Highlights of some places you will see and people you will meet:

- Tour the grounds of Yemin Orde Youth Village, the preeminent residential education program for at-risk youth in Israel, with visionary educator Dr. Chaim Peri. Yemin Orde is known for its ability to reclaim abandoned children from the four corners of the globe and turn them into productive citizens. Yemin Orde has made an extraordinary difference in the lives of thousands of children, providing them with an education as well as self-confidence and a commitment to social justice.
- Tour Ramat David, Israel's largest air base with the squadron commander Rami Galili as our tour leader.
- Ride along the Lebanese border with retired general Eival Gilady, who was responsible for the disengagement plan separating Israel from the West Bank. Eival was previously in charge of all strategic planning for all branches of the IDF. Today he is responsible for the Portland Trust which makes micro loans to Israelis and Arabs alike.
- Stay overnight in the lovely Village of Rosh Pina and mingle with the local community.

- Tour the Golan Heights with retired General Yoram Yair best known as “Ya Ya.” Ya Ya is Israel’s most experienced combat officer and most recently he headed the investigation of the war against Hezbollah in southern Lebanon.
- Visit Dr. Avi Ludomiski who is one of Israel’s leading venture capitalists. Avi converts military technology into lifesaving devices which he has sold to GE, Johnson & Johnson, Boston Scientific among others.

- Dinner with Ambassador Uri Lubrani who was Israel’s ambassador to Iran and the one responsible for negotiating the release and airlift of 15,000 Ethiopian Jews to Israel over 36 hours. Little known fact, Uri was on board one of the planes that went to Entebbe as an insurance policy in case things did not work out with Idi Amin as a result of his having served as ambassador to Uganda.
