Village Way Symposium Offers Musical Message of Meaning

The annual Village Way symposium is an opportunity for educators and facilitators working with Yemin Orde Educational Initiatives to gather and share ideas, successes and challenges of educating Israel's at-risk and immigrant youth. Well-known Israeli musicians Eviatar Banai, Aviv Geffen and Eran Mittleman also treated participants to an inspiring evening concert. Read more.

Making A Splash at Yemin Orde

The pool at Yemin Orde opened one month earlier than usual to provide swimming lessons to our youth who do not know how to swim. Despite its summer popularity, the Village's pool is in need of repairs, which will cost approximately $150,000. Read more.

Making the World A Better Place With Song and Dance

Members of Yemin Orde's Pre-Military Leadership Program for Immigrant Youth (mechina) gathered in Tel Aviv for a "flash mob" dance to honor the memory of

Hadar Goldin, a young IDF soldier killed during Operation Protective Edge. See the video!
