Donor Spotlight: Janet and Jake Farber's 70 Years of Commitment to the Jewish People

For nearly 70 years, Janet and Jake Farber have shared a passion for Israel. The Farbers have provided their support to Friends of Yemin Orde since 2005 which, in turn, has impacted the lives of thousands of Israel's fragile youth. "I know what it means not to have anything. So I was hoping for a day that I could be able to help someone else," Jake Farber said. Read more

Israeli TV Produces Documentary on Yemin Orde's Gap-Year Leadership Program for Men

Israeli television has produced a documentary on the unequivocal success of Yemin Orde gap-year program (mechina in Hebrew) in instilling self-worth, character, values and determination in young Ethiopian immigrants. The film airs often on Israel's Channel One, its main public

A Joyous Reunion of Friends

Walter Shuchatovitz, (seated in the photo at left), known as Mr. S, founder of the Bi-Cultural Day School in Stamford, CT; member of the first board of Friends of Yemin Orde, who recently lost his dear wife, Deena, of blessed memory, paid a quick visit to Israel on the occasion of the birth of his great-grandchild. Pam and Dr. Berle Berger, (standing next to Chaim Peri) also past board members of FYO who moved to Jerusalem, joined Chaim Peri in welcoming Mr. S and paying tribute to his years in American-Jewish education and his support of Israel through FYO. Dr. Berger continues to serve Yemin Orde as a member of its board in Israel.

Excitement for Mid-Year Progress Reports

Yemin Orde's youth recently received their mid-year progress report for the first half of the school year. Educators sat with each child and gave positive feedback and suggestions for areas of improvement. There was also opportunity for teachers to discuss future goals for the upcoming semester with each student. Read more

Israeli Scouts Movement Learn About the Village Way

Israel's popular Israeli Scouts Movement (Tzofim in Hebrew) invited key leaders from the Village Way Educational Institute to its national conference to learn more about the Village Way's "Multifaceted Israeli Culture" program. The Educational Institute developed this innovative training program for professionals working in diverse cultural environments, such as the Israeli scouts. Tzofim is the largest youth movement in Israel with more than 80,000 active members in nearly 100 cities, towns and villages.
